ROGUE VALLEY YOUTH CHORUSES

RYYC is a community chorus organization that includes more than 190 singers from 25 schools and numerous home schools in the valley. Talented singers in grades 3 through 12 audition yearly for one of four groups. The choruses perform regularly at the Rogue Valley Manor, area schools, and churches.

Sandy Roney, director of the Discovery Chorus, is a music educator with experience teaching K-12 music in Washington State. She has served as a guest clinician and adjudicator in the Northwest and conducted chancel and handbell choirs at the United Methodist Church in Colville, WA. She is currently teaching private music lessons specializing in voice, guitar, violin and cello. She also currently sings with the Siskiyou Singers in Ashland.

Gerry Flock, Children's Chorus director, has twenty-one years of music teaching experience in the Medford School District. Mr. Flock has served as Director of the Rogue Valley Discover/Children's Chorus for ten years. Mr. Flock is currently the principal at Wilson Elementary School, serves as worship leader and Elder at the West Main Church of Christ, and sings occasionally with the Rogue Valley Chorale.

Pam Nordquist, founded the Rogue Valley Youth Ensemble in 2002. Pam has taught elementary, middle and high school music in Kansas and Oregon, and currently co-directs the choirs at South Medford High School. She is currently serving as President-elect for the American Choral Director's Association of Oregon. Pam sings with the Rogue Valley Chorale and occasionally with the Southern Oregon Repertory Singers.

Welcome to Shauneen Garner, our new Cantare director beginning in January 2014. Shauneen moved to the Rogue Valley from Northwest Montana where she was the director of the Glacier Symphony Chorale and Glacier Children's Choir. She is currently Music Director of the Rogue World Ensemble in Ashland. Shauneen has directed chamber groups, community choirs, school choirs and church choirs, and is an accomplished organist, pianist, and harpist.
