

Rogue Valley Chorale offers concerts Nov. 18-19

1012.

ROGUE VALLEY CHORALE:

F. Joseph Haydn's "Mass in Time of War," for chorus and orchestra will be the major work featured when the Rogue Valley Chorale presents its fall concert series on Nov. 18 and 19.

The chorale, directed by Sean Warren, will perform "Songs of Nature," by Antonin Dvorak, and "Lieder and Romanzen," by Johann Brahms. A 22-piece orchestra of oboes, bassoons, trumpets, horns, typmpani and strings will accompany the chorale for the Haydn work.

The concert will be presented twice. The first performance will be at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 18.

The second presentation will be at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 19. Both performances will be in the auditorium of South Medford High School.

Soloists for the mass are Susan Olson, soprano; Carol Jackson, alto; Ted Lawson, tenor; and Eric Smith, bass. All are members of the chorale, and have performed extensively in the Rogue Valley.

Tickets are $7 for general admission and $5 for students/seniors. Tickets may be purchasd in advance, from chorale members, or at the door.
