The Rogue Valley Children's Chorus

The Rogue Valley Discovery Chorus

The Rogue Valley Youth Chorale

Saturday, May 3, 2003, 7:00 p.m.
Craterian Ginger Rogers Theater

The Rogue Valley Children's Chorus was founded in 1982 by its current director, Doris Sjolund. In 1985 the organization added a second chorus, the Rogue Valley Discovery Chorus. This year marks the debut of a third group, the Rogue Valley Youth Chorale. The auditioned singers come from approximately 25 schools and homeschools in the Rogue Valley and perform in concert each December and May. In addition, they perform regularly at the Rogue Valley Manor and local elementary schools. This spring the Children's and Discovery Choruses performed at Oak Grove, Jacksonville, and Ruch Elementary Schools. The Youth Chorale performed at an exchange concert with the Sam Barlow High School Choir from Gresham. Members of the Children's Chorus participated at the Pear Blossom Parade and the Light of Hope Candlelight Vigil.

Doris Sjolund, RVCC director and music specialist for the Britt Education Program, has served on the boards of Oregon Music Educators Association and Oregon's American Choral Directors Association. She is a member of the Rogue Valley Chorale, as well as its rehearsal accompanist.

Gerry Flock, RVDC director and past-president of the Rogue Valley Chorale Board, teaches music at Roosevelt and Ruch Elementary Schools. He is a member and a frequent soloist with the Rogue Valley Chorale.

Pam Nordquist, RVYC's founding director, recently moved to the Rogue Valley after many years of music teaching experience in Kansas and northern Oregon. She is a member of the Rogue Valley Chorale and co-director of the First Methodist Church choir.

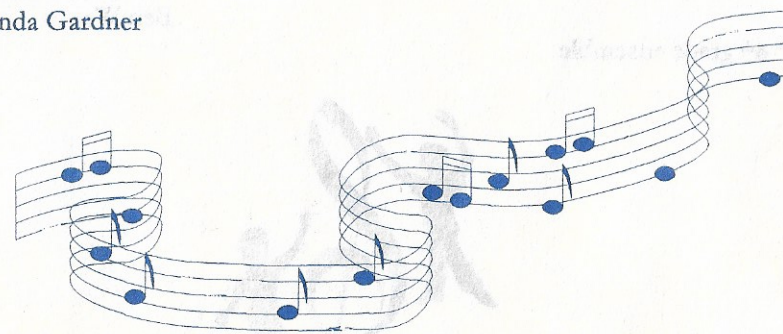

Tax-deductible donations to the choruses assist children who are unable to afford tuition. Contributions are gratefully accepted and may be sent to RVCC, 440 Richard Way, Jacksonville, OR 97530.
