

Chorale schedules two concerts

The Rogue Valley Chorale, now in its second season, will present its spring series of concerts next week.

The 75-member group will appear Thursday, April 17 at 8 p.m., in the Southern Oregon State College recital hall, Ashland, and Friday, April 18 at 8 p.m., in Medford Christian Church. Lynn Sjolund is director.

The program will open with "Hymn to King Stephen," by Zoltan Kodaly, and continue with "Collect," for chorus with electronic tape, by Leslie Bassett; "Pavanne for a Dead Princess," by Maurice Ravel and arranged for chorus by H. Zipper, and "Vesperae Solennes De Confessore," Mozart.

After intermission, Rosemary Wood will appear as guest soloist, singing works by Mozart, Scarlatti, Peter Warlock, Puccini and Jer-mone Kerns.

The chorus then will continue with three Brahms songs. Closing selections will be two choral scherzos, arranged by Gail Kubik, "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" and "Polly-Wolly-Doodle."

Tickets, $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students, will be available at Bryden's, from Chorale members, or at the door the evenings of the performance.
