

Arts Commission grants received

Three Jackson County organizations have received grants from the Oregon Arts Commission, Salem.

Receiving the largest amount was the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, Ashland, which was awarded $6,720 for a development coordinator.

The Southern Oregon State College Foundation received $350 to pay for a Portland dance performance and the Rogue Valley Chorale, Medford, received $500 to present concerts in the area.

The grants are for the first period the 1975-1977 biennium and are part of $129,109 in matching funds to 27 non-profit organizations throughout the state.

The Oregon Arts Commission will hold its August meeting at 10 a.m. Friday in the Alba Room of Medford City Hall. It is open to the public.

Aug. 1975