

Chorale to give Valley concerts

The 80-voice Rogue Valley Chorale, directed by Lynn Sjolund, will appear in two concerts this month, opening its fourth season.

They will sing at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 21, in the music recital hall, Southern Oregon State College, and at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 22 in the First Church of the Nazarene, 1974 E. McAndrews Road.

Guest soloist will be Larry Crummer, organist, associate professor of music at Southern Oregon State College.

The Chorale will open the program with a group of numbers: The Shepherds Had an Angel (Besley), with Lesta Whittaker as vocal soloist and

Dr. Glenn Matthews, English horn; A Hymn to the Virgin (Britten); The Three Kings and Son of Righteousness (Willan).

Third part of the program will include two Britten Selections: Rejoice in the Lamb, with Sharyl Lonstron, Bertie Alfrey, Dale Borum and Richard Edmundson as soloists; Festival Te Deum, with Roberta McKay as soloist.

The closing group will include The Silver Swan (Gibbons); O Let Me Live/Die for True Love (Tomkins); Come Again! Sweet Love Doth Now Invite (Dowland); Haste Thee, Nymph (Handel).

Tickets for the concert are $1.50.
