LYNN SJOLUND

Lynn Sjolund has served as Director of the Rogue Valley Chorale since its inception in 1973. His dedication to fine music is well known throughout Southern Oregon; in addition to being director of vocal music at Medford Senior High School, he has conducted many other music festivals and clinics throughout the Northwest. A past president of the Oregon Music Educator Association, Mr. Sjolund contributes many hours of community service, and is currently President of the Jackson County Community Concert Association.

A graduate of the University of Oregon, Mr. Sjolund was recently appointed by the University's School of Music to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the University of Oregon Music Society. He has also taught at the U of O summer session as a guest instructor.

PHYLLIS HUNTER

Phyllis Hunter, accompanist for the Rogue Valley Chorale, received a B.A. from Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. She is now completing work for a B.A. in Music Education from Southern Oregon State College.

Ms. Hunter is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, the Women's Music Fraternity, and has served as accompanist for the instrumental and choral contests of the Southern Oregon Music Educators Association. She is currently the choral director at St. Mary's High School.
