Rogue Valley Chorale

2010 - 2011 SEASON

Since 1973, the Chorale has been presenting the best in choral music to the residents of the beautiful Rogue Valley of Southern Oregon. In this, our 37th season, we will be presenting a rich variety of musical experiences, including our traditional Christmas concert, a showcase of Leonard Bernstein and a commissioned work by New Zealand native David N. Childs.

Invite some friends to join you to enjoy the fine choral music performed by the Rogue Valley Chorale. Each concert will be offered on Saturday evenings at 7:30 PM (a change from prior seasons), and Sunday afternoons at 3:00 PM.

This season's programming sponsored in part by D.A. Davidson, the Oregon Community Foundation and the Oregon Arts Commission.

Christmas with the Chorale

Saturday, Dec. 11, 7:30 PM &
Sunday, Dec. 12, 3:00 PM, 2010

In addition to Bach's famous cantata Wachet auf Ruft uns die Stimme, the Chorale will perform beautiful anthems by Pulitzer Prize winning composers and traditional carols in new settings. Music by Norman Dello Joio, William Balcom, Ned Rorem and Jennifer Higdon will be featured.

THE BEST OF BERNSTEIN

Saturday, March 12, 7:30 PM &
Sunday, March 13, 3:00 PM, 2011

Leonard Bernstein is one of our most beloved composers. His music, choral and vocal, includes a huge variety of memorable pieces. You will love hearing songs from West Side Story, Candide, On the Town and 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Also featured will be music from Bernstein's Mass written for the opening of the Kennedy Center.

AND AWAY WE GO

Saturday, May 7, 7:30 PM &
Sunday, May 8, 3:00 PM, 2010

The Chorale will perform music from its upcoming summer 2011 tour of England and Wales. Inspiring American music and great English anthems are on the program. A special feature will be the world premiere of a work commissioned for the Chorale by New Zealand born composer David N. Childs.
